MAKE THE VOTE AN AVALANCHE

RURY TAMMANY AND HER BUR-DEN OF MUNICIPAL DISGRACE

The Omens Are All for Victory -Let It Be a Tremendous Ope-Who of the 616 000 Register ed Voters Will Pall to Fluish the Work He Has Begun?

"The swing is with Low!"

"Keep it up!" "Snow 'em under!"

These are the war cries of the anti-Tammanyites in these closing days of the campaign. The last week is to be a hummer. The enemies of Tammany and Croker and the dreadful "cadet" system and all the labauchery of the Tammany administration for the last four years know full well that the swing is with them; that Tammany and Croker are smashed, but they want to make it a landslide.

the motto is, "Walk right into 'em and smash 'em as they were never smashed

Much credit is given to President Robert C Morris of the Republican County Committee and Chairman Ten Evck of the Executive Committee of the Republican County Committee. Their laborers have been ardous to a degree, and effectual. With other fusion campaigners they have been hitting the enemy from every quarter every hour in the day. The Kings county also worked incessantly and all believe that with a long pull and a strong pull and a pull all together Tammany and Croker and those ideal statesmen, Andy Freedman and lke Fromme, will be flung into the political ditch on election day.

Croker is daubing the town with advertising dodgers calling on voters to rebuke those who have "defamed New York."

The response on every lip is: Who is it that has defamed our splendid city and disgraced it in the eyes of the world? Croker and Tammany and Croker's kitchen cabinet. Croker has set the pace for them all by declaring 'I am in politics for my pocket all the time.' For four long years either from the Democratic Club in Fifth avenue or from Wantage Croker has dictated the Tammany administration. The police scandals, the poolroom pests. the awful 'cadet' system, and scores of other horrible abuses against our city have been the result.

Smash Croker and Tammany. "Sink 'em forever

"Go right at 'em." These are the watchwords of all who with bitterness in their hearts think of the disgrace that Croker and Tammany have beaped upon the second city in size

Over in Brooklyn the Willoughby Street leaders will not bet you a penny save on this proposition-that Law won't carry Kings by 20,000 plurality. Kings is liable to do anything for Low. Lieut.-Gov. Woodruff believes in his soul that Low's plurality will be 15,000 and he save if it 15,000 it might be twice those figures. To every enemy of Croker and Tammany in the city which they have degraded bauched and disgraced the word is: to the polls early on election day one week from to-morrow. Arrange your business affairs and your election day outings so that you can vote and then have know that you did your duty when you read the returns telling of the overthrow of Croker and Tammany, the terrible 'cadet" system and the other fostered evils which have blighted our magnificent city for four long years.

Smash Croker and Tammany." "Fling 'em both into the ditch."

TWO BILLION GLASS TRUST. Belgian Representatives Open Negotiations for a World-Wide Trust.

PITTSBURG, Oct. 27 .- A party of Belgian glass makers, bearing with them letters of ndorsement from the Russian Minister of Finance and several Belgian Government officials held a conference last night with James A. Chambers, President of the American Window Glass Company and laid before him plans for a combine of gigantic size, which they intend asking J.P. Morgan to financier.

It is a two-billion-dollar scheme. The ambitious Belgians want to take the United States Steel Corporation, the glass combines of America and a group of other industrial combines into an international scheme to regulate prices and to prevent American rate-cutting. The Belgians here yesterday admitted the project was yet in its infency, but said it had been dis-cussed at the series of conferences held in Belgium two months ago with Mr. Cham-bers and other officials of the American Window Glass Company.

IT WAS A "BUNGALOO" MURDER. ANY TRICK TO BEAT JEROME. Killing of Joseph Combs Due to Bace

groes, to-day confirms the theory of the police that there was something back of the murder of Joseph Combs last night which did not appear upon the surface at the time. It is now also evident that the murder was the direct result of the acts of the "Bungaloo" gang, which has so long terrorized certain parts of the city.

William Griffin voluntarily confessed to-day. He works at the National Malle able casting plant and yesterday when the employees were paid off, Griffin dropped a quarter on the ground. Several white men present said the money belonged to a white boy and a fight ensued and Grifto a white boy and a fight ensued and Grif-fin and George Russell, another colored boy, were beaten and driven from the plant. Last night the four men under arrest and George Russell armed them-selves and started out to find the whites who had assaulted Griffin and Russell. They were on this mission when they met Joseph Combs. Johnson struck a white boy and afterward shot Combs. All of the negroes say that Combs was not conthe negroes say that Combs was not con-cerned in the row in the afternoon and Johnson confessed that he shot Combs, alleging that Combs started toward him.

Combs is the second innocent man who has been killed because of clashes between whites and blacks, and the police regard the murder as growing out of the frequent assaults that have been made upon negroes anti-Tammany campaigners and those during the summer. It is known that the in The Bronx, Queens and Richmond, have pegroes go armed and that they look upon curs as being a member of the "Bungaloo" every white person with whom trouble for the Wedding That He Did Not Love Her. CHESTER, S. C., Oct. 27 .- Lieut. W. P. Crawford, U.S. A., whose bravery at Manila was rewarded by recommendation for promotion, is bitterly condemned here for having jilted Miss Rebecca Douglas on the morning of their wedding day. When it was known that President McKinley would promote the gallant soldier the business men of Chester signed a petition urging the President to withhold the appointment. Then the story of the love affair came out.

JILTED BY LIEUT, CRAWFORD. Sends Word to His Flancee on the Day Set

Before the Spanish war Crawford was editor of the Chester Lantern. He was a editor of the Chester Lantern. He was a rollicking sport and was seized with the war fever. While living here he had won the heart of Miss Douglas and the engagement was announced. Some time ago he obtained leave to come here and marry, and all plans for the wedding had been made. With the money earned as a trained nurse, Miss Douglas bought a trousseau. Many handsome presents had been received. Crawford was with her the evening before the day fixed for the wedding. The next morning he wrote Mrs. Douglas that he did not love her daughter and the ceremorning he wrote Mrs. Douglas that he did not love her daughter and the ceremony was called off. The young woman was heart broken. She put away the trousseau, returned the presents sent by her friends and is now in Raleigh, N. C. Crawford says that he would not marry Miss Douglas after finding that he did not love her, but his former friends declare that he acted in bad faith.

MRS. C. S. HOAG RETURNS. She Was Driven From Home by Her Husband on His Deathbed.

BRIDGEPORT, Conn., Oct. 27.-Mrs. Clitus S. Hoag, the former society leader who was sent away from her home by her husa good time afterward. In the evening band, Dr. Hoag, while on his deathbed vill be a fine sauce to your dinner to a year ago, returned yesterday and consulted lawyers to institute suit to secure her part of her late husband's estate The departure of Mrs. Hoag from home was due to a scandal in which the names of several citizens were linked with hers. She was President of the Musical Art Club and active in various social organizations.

Mrs. Hoag had lived in her home for a decade. At the time her husband was on his deathbed he refused to see her and she tried to force an entrance into the sick-room, but was unsuccessful. He sent word to her that he never wanted to see her face again.

Mrs. Hoag disappeared, and for two weeks, at the end of which Dr. Hoag died, weeks, at the end of which Dr. Hoag died, a policeman guarded the house day and night with instructions to arrest Mrs. Hoag if she endeavored to gain an entrance. Just prior to his death Dr. Hoag deeded all of his property to his brother, Dr. Alva A. Hoag, who is one of the leading medical prescitioners here.

Mrs. Hoag, it is believed, will seek to have set aside the deeds conveying her husband's property to his brother. She has been living in New York city during her absence from town.

MOSQUITO DAMAGE SUIT.

Mr. Turner Wants $2,000 for Discomfor Due to Mr. Valentine's Dam.

Albert Turner, an insurance agent of 1 Madison avenue, who lives at Chappaqua on the Harlem division of the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad, has begun suit in the Supreme Court for $2,000 damages against Mr. and Mrs. Alfred T. Valentine, his next-door neighbor. Mr. Valentine is a woollen merchant at 86 Franklin street. Both families live in fine resi dences at Chappaqua, but they have not always been able to live in neighborly

Some time ago the Valentines had William J. Waldie, Turner's foreman, arrested for building a fence, as they alleged, on their property. The complaint against Waldie was withdrawn. Now the Turners assert that the Valentines have built a assert that the Valentines have built a dam across a pond between the two resi-dences and in consequence the pond became a breeding place for mosquitoes, which greatly interfered with their rest and com-fort. They say that there never were any mosquitoes around the place until this dam was built.

Turner's foreman, Waldle, has begun suit against the Valentines for $10,000 dam-ages for false arrest in the fence dispute.

TAMMANY TRYING ABUSE AND

VIOLENCE ON THE EAST SIDE. Gangs of Heelers Organized to Break Up Jerome Meetings Organizer Even

Asks for a Schedule in Advance Police Keep Carefully in the Background. Tammany is trying by trickery and open abuse now to down Justice Jerome. Here are samples of both methods. On Friday some one called up his Canal street headquarters on the telephone to get a line on the next day's programme. Mr. Jerome's campaign manager, John J.

Henneberry, answered the call. "Where is Justice Jerome going to speak to-morrow night?" asked the man at the other end of the wire. "I want to take a party of friends around to the different meetings to hear. Will you give me his whole schedule?" Mr. Henneberry recognized the voice. "Oh, yes," he said, "glad you are so interested. Wait a minute and I'll read the schedule to you.

Then he recled off a list of five locations on the lower West Side, beginning at the Battery and winding up at Fourteenth street and Eighth avenue.

"Thanks," said the voice, "we'll be at all of them. "Well, Jerome won't," muttered Henneberry as he hung up the receiver. On that particular night (Saturday) Justice Jerome was in Harlem. Henne-berry sent a man to the places downtown which he had mentioned over the telephone, to see what would happen. At each place the messenger found a gang of toughs well supplied with bombs and horns and a staff of seventeenth-rate Tammany cart tail spellbinders. They were on hand with instructions to break up the Jerome meetings.

On the same night there was an open-air Jerome meeting at Lewis and Riving-ton streets. The customary attempt was made to break it up by stoning the speak-For every man there under instructions to throw brickbats there were a hundred anxious to hear the speeches, the small mob of toughs made thing uncomfortable for the crowd that than Lustgarten, who was in charge of the meeting, telephoned to Police Head-quarters for assistance. *What kind of a meeting is it?" asked the man at headquarters. 'It's a Jerome meeting."

Oh, a Jerome meeting. Well, all right.

"What! Are they still throwing rocks at you?" asked the policeman. "It's too damn bad, ain't it? I'll attend to it."

Then he rang off. At the end of another half hour a lone roundsman appeared from the Delancey street station. In the meantime the decent folks at the meeting had driven off the disturbers, so the roundsman found nothing out of the way. He began to abuse Lustgarten for causing him the trouble of a walk. But he didn't stop at that. He told Lustgarten, who was busy with the meeting, that he would have to go to the police station.

The Jerome man protested, but the roundsman insisted that Lustgarten would have to go and make a complaint about the stone-throwing so that the record will be complete." He made such a nuisance of himself at the meeting that Lustgarten finally consented to go, to get rid of him.

WOMAN ABLAZE AT CHURCH DOOR LEADERS DISMAY THE SQUIRE.

PLURALITIES OF 1900 ARE THE BEST THEY HOPE TO GET.

And the Hope is Worse Than Vague in Spots-Procession of District Leaders at the Club Leaves the City's Present Proprietor Thinking of Ouster.

The Squire, being unable to go to the horse races yesterday because there weren't any, passed his day at his town place at 617 Fifth avenue and spent the afternoon listening to reports from the leading members of his American tenantry on the prospects for electing the Squire's candidates for office.

The stream of district leaders kept up until 9 o'clock at night when the Squire went to Mr. Shepard's Rainbow factory at the Hoffman House with John A. Mason The Squire wasn't smiling when he left his town residence.

The reason for his failure to smile was that his Tammany leaders had reported that they thought they were going to get out the same pluralities for the Squire's candidates that they got for Mr. Bryan last year. This plurality for New York county was some 28,000, which is by no means the "old-fashioned Tammany plurality" which the leaders had so confidently promised a week or two ago. And there is no promise of even the pluralities of 1900. Tom Foley has already reported that he can't get that in the Second district and the slump on the East Side promises to be tremendous.

No one knew that this was a decided slump better than the Squire and he gave orders that no stone was to be left unturned to "knock out that man Jerome" and Mr. Low. It is said that he is very much displeased at the way the Tammany leaders on the East Side have been losing their grip and that he will vent his displeasure on these leaders by refusing to talk with them at his town residence if they don't do something right away to stem the tide

The Squire's visit to the Hoffman House was for the purpose of looking over the accounts kept by his stewards there. It is said that the Squire was convinced that not enough money was being spent there to compare well with the financial expenditures of the candidates on the county ticket. It is creditably reported that he asked for a dictionary and looked up the word "ouster." "When we come out of the campaign," said a Tammany man yesterday, "we are going to have a big wad left and if we win we are going to blow it in in the most spectacular way. If the Tammany ticket is elected we will have a cele bration that will put to blush anything of the kind that has ever been seen in town. We don't intend to give up this celebration even if Shepard is beaten, for we will hold it in honor of the Tammany county ticket if that wins. You remember that on the night that the city ticket was announced the Chief said that 'the Mayor had gone to Brooklyn, and Brooklyn gave us the best If Shepard is beaten the blame it had. is all to be laid at the door of the Willoughby Street machine and the success of the county ticket will be called a great Tammany victory and duly celebrated.

Bank Officials in Alabama Accused o

Converting of Securities. MONTGOMERY, Ala., Oct. 27.-United States District Attorney W. S. Reese was called to Eufaula yesterday by the bank examiner in charge of the Eufaula National Bank to institute criminal proceedings against the officers in connection with the conversion of State bonds belonging to former Gov. W. C. Oates, to the amount of about $40,000. The bank officers say that they had authority to use the bonds which Gov. Oates says were there as a special deposit and had been there as such for eighteen years.

It was arranged that no warrant should be issued in Eufaula, and last night Capt. S. H. Dent and Mr. E. B. Young, President and cashier, came to Montgomery where they are ready to make bond should a warrant be swore out. It is expected that the rant be sword out. It is expected that the matter will be arranged so as to go over to the Federal Grand Jury in about two weeks, and thus avoid an arrest.

Proceedings have not been begun by Gov. Oates, but by the Federal authorities.

Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN. LONDON, Oct. 27 .- The Duchess of Manchester, formerly Miss Helena Zimmerman, daughter of Mr. Eugene Zimmerman of Green Youngster Made Fast Time Over Cincinnati, has given birth to a daughter.

Miss Zimmerman and the Duke of Manchester were married very quietly in London on Nov. 14, 1900. She was then 21 and he 22. Though they had known each other two years and had been engaged. the sudden marriage was a great surprise to both families. Only Miss Zimmerman's to both families. Only Miss Zimmerman's companion, a Miss Evans, and two friends of the Duke were present. Mr. Zimmerman was in this country at the time and was only told of their plans after the ceremony. He made no protest, but welcomed the couple when they came here on a visit two weeks later. He is now abroad with them and recently gave $25,000 tow-ard paying off the Duke's debts, the Duke's family giving the rest.

Supposed to Have Been Murdered for Money by a Watch Repairer. CUMBERLAND, Md., Oct. 27.- Louis Neil, well-to-do bachelor, aged 40 years, was found murdered vesterday at his home in Garrett county, near Grantsville, a short distance from Straun, Pa. He lived alone for years and was known to have money, recently adding to his savings by the cash sale of a farm. His neighbors had missed him for nearly a week and knowing that a mysterious stranger, who said he was a state and clock repairer, had been visiting watch and clock repairer, had been visiting him, suspicion was aroused and an investigation made.

The door of his house was broken open to gain entrance. At first his body could not be found, but it was found after a closet door had been torn open. The body, with the skull crushed, had been locked in the closet. A bloody bar of iron lay near by A posse is in search of the watch repairer, who has fled. Ran Away Down a Hill and Turned Turtle -Injured Man Will Die.

Benedict, a conductor of the Jersey City. Hoboken and Paterson Railway Company, was mortally injured in a troiley accident early this morning. The car was on its last trip to Paterson and had reached the top of the Lakeview Hill, when the brake gearing broke and the car plunged down the steep incline. Benedict was inside. As the car struck the switch at the bottom of the hill it turned completely over. Benedict was hurled through the window and the car fell on top of him. His legs and arms were broken and his face badily battered. The physicians at St. Joseph's Hospital also found that he was injured internally and they say he cannot live.

LEXINGTON, Oct. 27.-C. F. Hill, trainr

for Clarence H. Mackay, was here last week and looked over some youngsters at the Kentucky Association track. He left without making any purchases and is said to have received a tip that the threeeighths mile pole had been tampered with Upon investigation vesterday it was found that the three-eighths pole, formerly known throughout the country as the "old walnut tree," had been set forty-two feet nearer the finish. The investigation was made at the instance of Si Hughes, whose colt by Major Richards, dam Miss Preston, had covered the distance in 37 seconds. That a bold attempt was made to swindle Mr. Mackay here on Thursday morning Mr. Mackay here on Thursday morning when the imp. Wagner-Margaret Jano colt was worked three-eighths of a mile when the imp. Wagner—Margaret Jano colt was worked three-eighths of a mile over a short course in 30% seconds, is now certain. The details are gradually developing, and it is thought the guilty man will be run down, and if the demands of prominent breeders and trainers in this section go for anything, the privilege of racing on every track in the country will be refused him. The reputed author of the attempt to swindle is credited with saying that if Mr. Mackav was worth $40,000,000, as he had been told, he would move the grand stand to beat him. Breeders are indignant over the matter, which they think will be detrimental to thoroughbred interests, and the Breeders' Protective Association will take the matter up and have a full investigation made. Overton Chenault of the Spendthrift Stud, Secretary of the association, Col. Milton Young and other prominent breeders united in a letter to Charles E. Green of St. Louis, who

After the work, which delighted Hill, he had an engagement to go to Mr. Headley's farm and he told Col. Chinn the deal would be completed by wire. The short distance was discovered, however, and on the morning after the work Messrs. Wilkerson and Engeman wired Mr. Mackay of, the attempted fraud and called the deal off. The price at which the colt was offered to Hill was $8,000.
